

Anita Rodina

Dean of the Faculty of Law of the University of Latvia

Rodina started her academic career at the university in 2000 as an assistant at the Chair of Constitutional Law but was elected associate professor just last year.

Dr Anita Rodina has protractedly officiated as the Vice-Dean of the Faculty: initially as the responsible for academic affairs, but later as the Vice-Dean for development of the Faculty and international affairs. She also spent a year as Acting Dean during the absence of professor Kristīne Strada-Rozenberga from 2009 to 2010.
